Intelligent Transportation Society of Georgia Announces Election of Directors

GREENSBORO, GA (September 20, 2010) – The Intelligent Transportation Society of Georgia today announced the election of directors for the 2011 – 2012 term. The newly elected directors were introduced at ITS Georgia’s annual meeting at Reynolds Plantation on Lake Oconee, Georgia.

Elected to the board of directors were: Kenn Fink of Kimley-Horn and Bayne Smith of URS. Re-elected was Patrece Keeter of Dekalb County.

“We are pleased to have Kenn, Bayne and Patrece on the board. All three are top-tier transportation professionals who understand the importance of our mission,” said ITS Georgia President Marion Waters. “I also want to extend the gratitude of the chapter membership to Shaun Green and Taylor Stukes for their service on the board. They both have worked tirelessly over the years to make ITS Georgia one of the top chapters in the country.”

About ITS Georgia

ITS Georgia is a group of organizations that support ITS technology as a way to significantly reduce congestion and improve the performance, safety and efficiency of our transportation system. ITS Georgia provides a forum for advocacy, facilitation, integration, and for learning more about Intelligent Transportation Systems. ITS Georgia members include federal, state and local transportation agencies, ITS technology and service providers, large private and commercial transportation system users, universities, and other interested parties with missions that involve, or are affected by, the transportation system.
